FieldBee

About Our Company

We are a precision agriculture company specializing in tractor guidance systems. HQ'd in the Netherlands and active since 2014, we sell our products globally - both to manufacturers and to the retrofit market. Our goal is to help the world's small farmers to work more productively and more sustainably.

Our team is applying modern developments in mobile, cloud, sensor, and big data technologies to build the most valuable precision products for farmers and their agricultural machines.

Our vision:

FieldBee helps every farmer feed the world by facilitating the transition to more productive and sustainable arable and orchard farming.

Our mission:

Provide accessible intelligence and machine automation for high-quality fieldwork for every farm and under all conditions.

FieldBee and our Dealers

What you can expect from us:

When choosing to partner with us you can expect to have a transparent dealer discount plan and stable pricing which allow you to properly plan your business and invest into the relationship. Our dealer discount structure rewards you relatively to the size of your orders.

We invest in our relationship right from the beginning so that you can get off to a smooth and easy start.

We then continue to support you with information and aid you in sales throughout your initial period with us.

Our Tier system ensures continuity of commercial terms between us and allows you sufficient time to ramp up your FieldBee product sales.

FieldBee

Dealer Tier system basics

How tiers work

- Crossing into a higher tier means retroactive discounts over orders made in that year.
- “1st Tier” will be calculated retroactively on all orders within the past 12 months
- Once you make it to tier 1, during the next 2 years you can only go up.
- When we run special offer sales, you will still receive your dealer discount, though a correspondingly lower one.

For a full and more detailed list of policies, see the Commercial Terms document

FieldBee

Charging your customers

1. Within the EU, customer prices need to always be equal to list prices

2. List prices may change, though we try to keep them as stable as we can.

3. You may charge customers extra for products not sold by FieldBee, e.g., a tablet. Try to keep those attractively priced as well.

4. Installation and initial training prices must be kept low enough for small farmers. See the Commercial Terms document for guidelines.

FieldBee

A fast and easy start

Our mission is to help as many small and mid-sized farmers as we can, and we therefore want to work with you.
For that to happen, we want to make it easy for you to start working with us: we don't ask for commitments up-front, and we don't force you to invest into large stocks.

Starting with dealer discounts

As a new FieldBee dealer, you don't get a discount over your initial order if that's a small one. Your initial dealer discount kicks in when you show that you're somewhat serious about selling our products. See more details in the full Commercial Terms document.
